INTRODUCTION

This Manual has been compiled in accordance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act of 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (The Act). The Act prescribes that a public body must provide details of records held by such public body so that any request for information may be accommodated.

The Manual is to serve as a guide on how members of the public can access the information that is being kept in the records of the Department of Labour. The Manual gives effect to the right of access to information as contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa and the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (PAIA) This provides for the right of access to information held by the State or other public bodies by members of the public. The Manual also prescribes the manner in which the information must be accessed. Set out below is the procedure with regard to the lodging of a request for access to the Department of Labour’s information.

The Manual also contains information of the designated Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who are responsible for handling all the applications that are made for access to information as well as the name of each Programme and it’s core function and a list of all records kept by the Department of Labour.

SECTION 13

REQUEST PROCEDURE

13.1 TELEPHONIC REQUESTS

Informal telephonic requests are permitted by the Department. Any such request made to the Information Officer/Deputy Information Officer at the telephone number given in this Manual will be attended to unless the Deputy Information Officer indicates that the provisions of the Act must be carried out – in this case the request will commence with the completion of FORM A and payment of requisite fees if applicable.

13.2 VOLUNTARY ACCESS

Information that is automatically available – automatically available meaning without having to complete FORM A and paying the requester’s fee – will be made available either at the offices of DoL or in the manner requested, should this be reasonable and possible. The manner of access will include:

- Perusal with copying of material if needed and at the prescribed fee for copies;
- Access to visual, audio-visual material with transcription, dubbing or copying or both, if required.
13.3 SECTION 14(1)(d) REQUESTS

A Requester must be given access to a record of DoL if the requester complies with the following:

- The requester complies with all the procedural requirements in the Act relating to the request for access to that record; and
- Access to that record is not refused on any ground of refusal mentioned in the Act.

Nature of the request

- A requester must complete the form similar to the one printed in the Government gazette (Government Notice R 187 -15 February-FORM A); (attached at the end of the Manual).

- The requester must indicate the form or manner of access sought as prescribed by section 29;

- DoL will endeavour to give access in the form requested unless this would tamper with the smooth running of DoL;

- Giving access will give due consideration to preservation of material, infringement of copyright and request or access fees as prescribed must be paid before a request is processed and, search and preparation fees are also payable before access is given;

- A requester representing another must give details of the capacity in which they act; s18(2)(f)

- A requester who cannot read nor write or needs assistance in completing a request form, may present the request orally and the Deputy Information Officer is obliged to assist such a requester. 18(3)

- If the Information Officer fails to give the decision on a request for access to the requester concerned within 30 days after the request is received, the Information Officer is, regarded as having refused the request.
13.4 FRIVOLOUS OR VEXATIOUS REQUESTS OR SUBSTANTIAL AND UNREASONABLE DIVERSION OF RESOURCES

13.4.1 The Information Officer may refuse a request for access to a record if:

- the request is manifestly frivolous or vexatious;
- the work involved in processing the request would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the DoL.

13.5 MANDATORY DISCLOSURE IN THE INTEREST OF THE PUBLIC

Despite any other provision in PAIA, the Information Officer must grant a request for access to a record of DoL if:

a) the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of –

- a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or
- an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and

b) the public interest in the disclosure of the record clearly outweighs the harm contemplated in the provision in question.

13.6 RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

13.6.1 If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record is in DoL’s possession but is lost or damaged or does not exist then the Information Officer must by way of an affidavit notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to that record.

13.6.2 The affidavit must give a full account of all steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exists, including communicating with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the Information Officer.
13.7 PAYMENT OF FEES IN TERMS OF THE REQUEST

Personal Requester

A requester who seeks information on records about himself or herself or next of kin if the information is about a deceased individual, is exempted from paying fees.

Request Fees

Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee:

- The information officer must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee before further processing the request;

- The request payable to public bodies is R35.00.

- After the information officer has made a decision on the request, the requester must be notified of such a decision in the way in which the requester wanted to be notified in;

- If the request is granted, then a further access fee must be paid for the search, preparation and reproduction and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

13.8 PAYMENT METHOD

Every requester who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee. The requester must deposit the request fee into DoL’s bank account (details of which will be given to the requester by DoL). The proof of the deposit slip must be forwarded to DoL’s Deputy Information Officer before any request can be processed.
DETAILS OF DOL’S BANK ACCOUNT:

Bank : First National Bank
Account Holder : Department of Labour
Account Number : 62025135577
Branch : 253145

It is important to note the provisions of section 22(1) of the Act to the effect that no request may be processed unless a request fee is paid.

See attached fee schedule prescribed by PAIA at the end of the Manual

SECTION 14

NATURE OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY DoL

DoL provides services to settle disputes and ensure fairness in the workplace. The current Labour Legislation, is the product of extensive consultation with government, labour and employers. DoL facilitates and recognises Foreign and International laws to ensure that the labour legislations are in line with universally accepted Human Rights Principles.

SECTION 15

ARRANGEMENT ALLOWING FOR PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT IN FORMULATING POLICY AND EXERCISE OF POWER

15.1 Each Branch of the department has external advisors who are invited to give public comment in the development of policy.

15.2 The South African Law Commission calls for public comments on legislation from experts and the general public.

15.3 Draft legislation is published in the Government Gazette for perusal and comment.

15.4 DoL’s Annual Report and other reports are open to public viewing, reading and commentary.
SECTION 16

REMEDIES AVAILABLE IF THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT ARE NOT COMPLIED WITH [s 14(1)H]]

16.1 REFUSAL OF REQUEST AND INTERNAL APPEALS AGAINST DECISIONS

16.1.1 The Act provides for an internal appeal. A decision of the IO or DIO on the following grounds:

(a) a refusal to grant access; or
(b) a decision taken in terms of sections 22, 26(1) or 29(3).

The Director-General is the relevant authority to review any decision taken on appeal.

An aggrieved party has to approach the Courts if dissatisfied with the decision of the Director-General.

16.2 THE INTERNAL APPEAL PROCEDURE

• When the requester / third party lodges an appeal, the prescribed appeal Form (Annexure B attached to the end of the Manual), has to be completed and lodged with the Information Office within 60 days.

• The internal appeal must identify the subject of the internal appeal and state the reasons thereof and may include any other relevant information known to the appellant.

• The internal appeal must state the manner and provide the particulars which the appellant desires to be informed of on the decision of the internal appeal in addition to a written reply and specify a postal address or fax number.

• The Information Officer will forward all internal appeals and accompanying documentation to the Deputy Information Officer, who will then forward it to the Relevant Authority, which in this case is the Director General.

• The Information Officer will inform the requester / third party of the outcome of the internal appeal.
• A requester / third party who is dissatisfied with the outcome of the internal appeal may, within 30 days of receipt of the response, submit an application to the court for a final decision.

16.3 APPLICATION TO COURT

16.3.1 Applications regarding the decision of the Director-General or the person designated in writing by the Director-General

A requester or third party may only, after exhausting the internal appeal procedure against a decision of an Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer, apply to a court for appropriate relief.

A requester whose internal appeal has been unsuccessful or aggrieved by a decision of the Director-General or the person designated in writing by the Director-General to disallow the late lodging of the appeal in terms of section 75(2) of the Act, may by way of an application, within 30 days apply to a court for appropriate relief in terms of section 82.

The unsuccessful third party in an internal appeal to the relevant executing authority may, by way of an application, within 30 days apply to a court for appropriate relief in terms of section 82.

• Other supportive measures
  o Reasons for an administrative action in terms of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act, 2000 (Section 5); must be furnished where a person’s rights have been materially and adversely affected by that administrative action.

SECTION 17

UPDATING THE MANUAL [Section 14(2)]
