

Unclaimed Monies from the Compensation Fund

The Compensation Commissioner invites all clients whose claims had been finalised but had not yet received compensation to visit the Compensation Fund. If you've been injured on duty and lodged a claim with the Compensation Fund then the time has come to verify if you are a beneficiary of these unclaimed monies.

Steps to follow:

- Bring a certified copy of your ID, utility bill not older than 3 months, a current bank statement and a banking details form. To access this form log on to www.labour.gov.za and click on unclaimed monies from the Compensation Funds on the home page or visit your nearest Labour Centre or Provincial Office.
- If you are an employer, bring your proof of company registration and the banking details form.
- If you are a medical provider, bring the practitioner number and the banking details form.
- Failure to produce the above documentation disqualifies you from making any claim.
