1. WHO ARE WE?

The mandate of the Department is to regulate the labour market through policies and programmes developed in consultation with social partners, which are aimed at:

- · Improved economic efficiency and productivity
- Creation of decent employment
- Promoting labour standards and fundamental rights at work
- Providing adequate social safety nets to protect vulnerable workers
- Sound labour relations
- Eliminating inequality and discrimination in the workplace
- Enhancing occupational health and safety awareness and compliance in the workplace
- Give value to social dialogue in the formulation of sound and responsive legislation and policies to attain labour market flexibility for competitiveness of enterprises which is balanced with the promotion of decent employment.

2. WHO BENEFITS FROM THE DEPARTMENT'S SERVICES?

The following are service beneficiaries:

- Employers
- Employees
- Unemployed
- Underemployed
- · Private employment agencies
- · Trade unions and trade unions federations
- Employer organisations
- Medical service providers.

3. OUR VISION

The Department of Employment and Labour strives for a labour market which is conducive to investment, economic growth, employment creation and decent work.

4. OUR MISSION

Promote employment and regulate the South African labour market for sustainable economic growth through:

- · Appropriate legislation and regulations
- Inspection and enforcement
- Protection of worker rights
- Provision of employment services
- Promoting equity
- Provision of social protection
- · Promote social dialogue.

5. OUR VALUES

We shall at all times be exemplary in all respects:

- · We treat employees with care, dignity and respect
- · We respect and promote:
 - Client centred services
 - Accountability
 - · Integrity and ethical behaviour
 - · Learning and development
- We live the Batho Pele Principles
- We live the principles of the Department's Service Charter
- · We inculcate these values through our performance management system.

6. BATHO PELE PRINICIPLES

- Consultation. Citizens should be consulted about the level and quality of the services they receive and, wherever possible, should be given a choice about the services that are offered.
- Service Standards. Citizens should be told what level and quality of service they will receive so that they are aware of what to expect.
- Access. All citizens should have equal access to the services which they are entitled to, irrespective of the mode of access.
- Courtesy. Citizens should be treated with courtesy and consideration.
- Information. Citizens should be given full, accurate information about the services they are entitled to receive.
- Openness and transparency. Citizens should be told how national and provincial departments are run, how much they cost and who is in charge.
- Redress. If the promised standard of service is not delivered, citizens should be offered an apology, a full explanation and a speedy and effective remedy; and when complaints are made, citizens should receive a sympathetic, positive response within the set timeframe.
- Value for money. Public services should be provided economically and efficiently in order to give citizens the best possible value for money.
